

Jubilee Global Mission Committee

Standing Members

Standing Members are appointed by Diocesan Council. Two members are appointed each year to serve a three-year term. If you are interested in serving on the committee, please contact the Deacon for Global Mission Partnerships, Holly Hartman, at hhartman@diomass.org.

Jubilee Global Mission Chair The Rev. Diane Wong is the Priest-in-Charge at St. John's Church, Arlington. Born and raised in Hong Kong, she developed a keen interest in the role of the church vis a vis the problems of the world. Diane's passion for mission was ignited during a pilgrimage to Guatemala shortly after she was ordained. She went on to spend 4 years as a priest in Taiwan, before returning to the Diocese of Massachusetts.

Natalie Finstad is the Executive Director of the Leadership Development Institute in Brookline, MA. Trained in community organizing, she was co-founder of the NGO Tatua Kenya in Nairobi, where she lived for five years. Tatua was the recipient of the 2012 Diocesan Council Grant. She is currently a postulant for the diaconate.

Karen Hotte has served as the Executive Director of the Global Episcopal Mission Network since 2014. She became passionate about mission after leading life-changing trips to El Salvador in 2005 and 2009, and she has since been engaged in mission in Ecuador, Haiti, and Colombia and youth mission in Puerto Rico. She is an active member of St. Gabriel's Church, Marion.

Dr. Douglas Huber served on the Jubilee Committee of the Diocese of Massachusetts at its inception in 1998 and has served on the Jubilee board several times. He has 40 years' experience in global public health, program management, and project implementation and evaluation. Douglas was a Volunteer for Mission (VFM) from the Diocese of Massachusetts and The Episcopal Church from 2002-2004 serving as the HIV/AIDS Advisor to the Council of Anglican Provinces of Africa (CAPA) in Nairobi. He was active with Episcopal Partners for Global Mission (EPGM) in training and workshops for Episcopal missionaries.

The Rev. Noble Scheepers has been rector of Trinity Church, Marshfield, since 2015, where he has facilitated the discernment of a call to mission relationship with the Diocese of Cape Town, S. Africa. Born, raised, and ordained in S. Africa, he has extensive experience in youth ministry and mission in S. Africa, Australia, and England. Noble believes it is imperative that connection through the church be sustained around the world, as a means to respond to social need and injustice.
