MA bishops call for 48-hour election prayer
vigil

The bishops of both Massachusetts dioceses are calling for a 48-hour election prayer vigil, from noon on All Saints Sunday, Nov. 6 through noon on Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 8.

“As our nation approaches its Election Day on Nov. 8, we have a deep yearning for the Holy Spirit to be present in our national life. Individually we express this yearning in a variety of ways according to personal conscience. Collectively, we are called to express this yearning through prayer,” Bishop Alan M. Gates and Bishop Gayle E. Harris of the Diocese of Massachusetts and Bishop Douglas J. Fisher of the Diocese of Western Massachusetts say in their call for an election vigil. Read the full text of their message here.

All congregations are urged to participate in a way that best suits their local traditions and schedules. For some it may be as simple as concluding the Sunday prayers with an extended Litany for the Nation, or holding a special form of Morning Prayer on Nov. 8. Others may wish to hold extended vigils, with prayer in shifts offering continuous intercession.

Congregations are invited to share their vigil plans with the wider diocesan community by e-mailing details to news@diomass.org for posting at www.diomass.org/election-vigil. Resources are posted there as well.

Individuals are also encouraged to join their prayers with those of others during the vigil period. People can use this Facebook event page to share in prayer and discussion from wherever they may be, as well as for posting vigil plans and prayer resources.

Episcopalians of all ages are invited to join Bishop Alan M. Gates of the Diocese of Massachusetts and Bishop Douglas J. Fisher of the Diocese of Western Massachusetts on Saturday, Oct. 22, 12-6 p.m., as they walk a stretch of both dioceses together, from Northborough to Southborough, and then join for a pre-election discussion program with young people about their concerns and hopes for the world. Youth from both dioceses are especially invited, but this special joint event is open to all.

Find more details and register online here.

A guide to help youth groups prepare for the event is available here. Youth groups are encouraged to use the guide for their own local conversations regardless of participation in the Oct. 22 event.

Diocesan Convention
forums coming up in Oct.

Pre-convention forums this month will offer an important opportunity for learning and discussion about the issues and business to come before the convention, including the proposed new mission strategy, resolutions and the proposed budget. Forums will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. on:

- Wednesday, Oct. 19 at Trinity Church (124 River Road) in Topsfield;
- Thursday, Oct. 20 at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston;
- Tuesday, Oct. 25 at Christ Church (149 Court Street) in Plymouth; and
- Wednesday, Oct. 26 at St. Andrew's Church (3 Maple Street) in Framingham.

FOR INFORMATION: Laura Simons, Office of Convention and Council (617-482-4826, ext. 406 or lsimons@diomass.org).

NOTES:

- The diocesan Global Mission Office would like congregations to know that staff members continue to be available to assist with developing and furthering ministry with refugees and asylum seekers. Resources are available for presenting a workshop to the congregation, connections with local agencies and an ever-growing list of parishes in this diocese which have been engaging in partnerships with refugees. In addition, both Laura Walta and the Rev. Holly Hartman are available to come and speak with congregations about this increasingly relevant ministry, and they welcome inquiries.

FOR INFORMATION: Laura Walta (617-482-4826, ext. 422 or lwalta@diomass.org) or The Rev. Holly Hartman (617-482-4826, ext. 351 or hhartman@diomass.org).

- The Episcopal Boston Chinese Ministry invites the diocesan community to join for its 35th anniversary celebration, "Honoring the Past, Serving the Present, Embracing the Future," on Sunday, Oct. 9. Bishop Alan M. Gates will be the celebrant at the 12:30 p.m. service of Holy Eucharist at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul (138 Tremont Street) in Boston, with the Rev. Eric H.F. Law preaching. Clergy joining the procession will vest (red stole).

Following the service there will be a banquet at 3 p.m. at the China Pearl Restaurant (9 Tyler Street) in Boston, to which all are welcome. Musical entertainment will feature the ancient Chinese instrument Gu Zheng. Banquet tickets are $40 per person ($20 per child). RSVP for the banquet by e-mail to connienglam@diomass.org.

FOR INFORMATION: The Rev. Canon Connie Ng Lam, Cathedral Church of St. Paul, Boston (617-482-4826, ext. 202 or connienglam@diomass.org).

CHURCHWIDE:

- The House of Bishops on Sept. 20 issued “A Word to the Church for the World” lamenting “the stark joylessness that marks our present time” and decrying “angry political rhetoric which rages while fissures widen within society along racial, economic, educational, religious, cultural and generational lines.”

“Every member of the church has been ‘called for a time such as this.’ (Esther 4:14) Let prophets tell the truth in love. Let reconcilers move boldly into places of division and disagreement. Let evangelists inspire us to tell the story of Jesus in new and compelling ways. Let leaders lead with courage and joy,” the bishops wrote.

Upcoming youth ministry events:

- It’s time to register for the 2016 Middle School Retreat, Friday-Sunday, Nov. 18-20, at the Barbara C. Harris Camp and Conference Center in Greenfield, N.H. Led by the Diocesan Youth Council, the weekend features small group workshops, indoor and outdoor games, worship to get everyone moving and thinking, music by the band Ashes Remain and some much-needed time away from the rush of everyday routines in order to pay more attention to the Spirit of God in our lives. Scholarship support is available, as is bus transportation. Registration closes when capacity is reached, or on Nov. 13. Register online here.
- Join Bishop Gayle E. Harris and the people of St. Luke’s-San Lucas Church in Chelsea on Saturday, Dec. 17, 6:30-9 p.m., for Las Posadas, a traditional Advent event in which those gathered will trace Mary and Joseph’s traveling search for shelter. As the group celebrates this well-known story from the Christian tradition, it will hold close in heart and mind the serious plight of modern-day refugees struggling to find shelter today. This is a bilingual and multicultural celebration with processions, music, food and hospitality. There is a registration fee of $5 per participant (register here), but if cost is a barrier, contact the Office of Youth Ministry. FOR INFORMATION: The Rev. H. Mark Smith, Office of Youth Ministry (617-482-4826, ext. 215, or hmsmith@diomass.org).
