Collaborative Ministries Working Group now forming within diocese

Has your congregation partnered with another in a way that brought new energy and ministry to life? Or can you envision such a partnership in the future? Are you a clergy person who shares your time between a congregation and another vocation or ministry? If so, the Collaborative Ministries Working Group would love to hear about your experiences.

The Collaborative Ministries Working Group, called for by Bishop Alan M. Gates in his Diocesan Convention address, is being formed. The group's first task will be to listen and learn about the variety of collaborative ministries in the diocese. The group will examine past and current collaborations and explore possibilities for future ones, and is looking forward to learning what has worked, what has failed and what is needed to sustain vital collaboration. Come share your wisdom in listening groups (which will be scheduled later this spring) or by being interviewed.

FOR INFORMATION/TO OFFER SUGGESTIONS: The Rev. Canon Kelly O'Connell (koconnell@diomass.org) or The Rev. Megan Holding (theholdings@gmail.com).

Clergy and leadership invited to engage in mission strategy review

The Mission Strategy Committee of Diocesan Council has invited clergy and lay leaders to help refresh the shared diocesan mission strategy, which is canonically due for a review this year. This document is available to help guide group conversations at annual meetings, vestry retreats or other leadership gatherings. Photos of notes, chat room logs or similar records are all that's needed to give feedback. E-mail those by Friday, March 19 to missionstrategy@diomass.org. Additional ways to engage in this process will be provided in upcoming days. Questions may be directed to the Mission Strategy Committee at missionstrategy@diomass.org.

Bishops issue guidance for Ash Wednesday

Guidance issued on Jan. 21 from the bishops regarding Ash Wednesday reiterates their continued urging that in-person, indoor worship be suspended, and includes the reminder that the imposition of ashes is an optional portion of the Ash Wednesday liturgy. "Ashes to Go" practices should be forgone this year for public safety reasons, the guidance emphasizes, and it specifies how ashes may be made available to people for self-imposition during a subsequent online Ash Wednesday liturgy or pastoral visit. "Even while advancing our spiritual health, this year's Ash Wednesday observances must also safeguard our physical well-being and that of those in our communities," the bishops said. Find the full guidance here.

Cathedral to offer Ash Wednesday livestream & online “Repentance 2021” preaching series

The Cathedral Church of St. Paul in Boston will livestream an Ash Wednesday service on Feb. 17 at noon, with Dean Amy E. McCreath preaching and Bishop Alan M. Gates presiding. The livestream and a bulletin for the service will be available at www.stpaulboston.org.

This year, in accordance with current safety protocols, those participating from home are invited to self-impose ashes. (Send name and mailing address to cathedral@diomass.org by Feb. 10 to receive a packet of ashes.) The service also will include the remembrance of those who have died from COVID-19; all are invited to send names to cathedral@diomass.org to be read aloud during the service and written in a memorial book at the cathedral.

“Repentance 2021—Turning back to God here and now”:

The invitation of Lent to repent and return to the Lord is the same every year, but we come to this invitation this year in the wake of the overlapping pandemics of COVID-19, racism, climate change and disinformation. How shall we answer the ancient invitation faithfully in this particular season of our common life?

The Cathedral Church of St. Paul in Boston invites everyone to take part in its annual Lenten Preaching Series, via Zoom, on Thursdays at noon throughout Lent. This year’s series lifts up voices of leaders who are fairly new to the greater Boston area or who have come to see the area anew. The sermons will be offered within the context of a brief service of noonday prayer. Conversation with the preacher and other attendees follows, with an end time of 1:15 p.m. Register here to receive a Zoom link.

The schedule of preachers for the series is:

- Feb. 18: The Rev. Morgan S. Allen, Rector, Trinity Church, Boston
- Feb. 25: The Rev. Gregory G. Perez, Priest-in-Charge, St. Stephen’s Memorial Church, Lynn
- March 4: Omalara Fatiregun, Cheng Fellow and doctoral student, Harvard Graduate School of Education
- March 11: James Rutenbeck, Filmmaker, Lost Nation Pictures

Also new are questions about online worship and questions on the impact the pandemic has had on congregational life and finances. The report also asks about the congregation’s involvement in racial justice and reconciliation work. ## GRANTS & LOANS:

- Congregational Development Grants are one way the diocesan budget supports worshipping communities in strengthening community vitality and deepening relationships with God. The program challenges congregations to try new programs and prayerfully reflect on current and proposed programs that nurture and reimagine congregational life. Congregations intending to apply in 2021 are invited to submit a letter of intent by March 1 via a new online form, available here. Find a brochure summarizing all diocesan grant and loan programs here.

- “Wicked Good Idea” Microgrants will be available again this year, as an invitation to congregations, networks and organizations in the diocese to try something new in their ministry context in support of the diocesan mission strategy. The grants are a way to put some seed-money support behind ideas for how to do the work of Christ in new and creative ways. While ideas of church have shifted somewhat in the current time, mission work continues, and this grant initiative encourages everyone to think creatively about how to do that.

A total of $15,000 is available for grants in 2021. Applications will be available April 1, and will be received on a rolling basis for individual grants of $500 to $2,000. Find more information here. Questions may be directed to the Mission Strategy Committee at missionstrategy@diomass.org.
