

2024 Indigenous Peoples' Day

Monday, October 14, 2024 at 10:30 A.M.– 3:00 P.M.

Many People, Many Places: The Particularities of Native New England Children's Program (ages 5 –10 Years Old) "Celebrating Indigenous People"
10:30 A.M.—12:30 P.M.

Please Register Here: <https://lp.constantcontactpages.com/ev/reg/xrw3q4v>

Location: Christ Church, 25 Central St Andover, MA 01810.

Hear native leaders at the national and local levels describe the unique experiences of the "people of first contact" with the Europeans and join in exercises and discussions with your colleagues as you ponder what you and your community might want to consider in your particular context. Alongside this morning program, a separate children's program will be offered. Following a shared lunch, the day will conclude with Celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Guest Speaker & Preacher: Janine Tinsley-Roe, MHC, an enrolled leader of the Shinnecock & Poospatuck Tribal Nations of Long Island, and former Missioner for Native American Ministries for The Episcopal Church. She is the great-great granddaughter of Shinnecock Priest & Episcopal Saint Paul Cuffee. She has worked for the preservation of her Native American culture on Long Island for over 40 years, establishing the Shinnecock Sewanaka Society. Janine is a lifelong member of Christ Church Bellport. She is the mother of three young adults, a grandmother and currently works with students with disabilities, neurodivergent and Autism. She is a faithful servant for her love of Native American ministry work and to advocate for continued acknowledgment and presence of Native American ministry in the Episcopal and Anglican Churches.

Sponsored by the Office of Immigration and Multicultural Ministries of the Diocese of Massachusetts. For more information: www.diomass.org/immigration-multicultural-ministries
